IT was with surprise that we saw the strict rules concerning the re-examination of lower classmen applied to the last Senior class which graduated here. Men who had passed every subject in their course except one subject of the last term of the Senior year had great difficulty in obtaining a second re-examination, without which they must have failed to graduate with their class. It is the policy of our faculty to continually raise the standard of the University, and in this they have everyone's approval; but is it making a degree from Lehigh more valuable to prevent a man from graduating simply because of the lack of a re-examination? Will a man be really any better fitted to take his degree by being compelled to wait until the following Fall to pass his condition?

IT is the custom at some of our colleges, notably Yale, to have the examination questions always in printed form and for each professor to deposit in the library a copy of each set. These are then at the disposal of the students for reference. By this means a man is enabled to get an idea as to what is considered most important in a subject, which is by no means a small help in preparing for an examination, particularly to lower classmen. Where the papers run back through half a century they are an excellent history of the progress and development in the manner in which a study is taught and in the study itself. It is to be hoped that this custom will find favor here and that the faculty will take the necessary step in this direction, viz., to have all examination questions printed in the future.

IN announcing the election of F. S. Camp, '92, and C. W. Meade, '92, to the Editorial Board of THE BURR, it is with regret we are compelled to state, that the competition for these positions has been of a very poor order. The vacancies from the Junior Class have not been filled for the plain reason that the few candidates from that class have not demonstrated sufficient ability to deserve an election.

If THE BURR is to be successfully continued next year, far greater interest than has yet been evidenced by the Class of '91, must be taken in its management. Every opportunity has been given and every encouragement offered to call forth any latent ability this class may possess, but the result has been far from satisfactory, and it is certainly little creditable that this class is the only one without adequate representation.

FOR the second consecutive season, Lehigh wins the foot-ball championship of Pennsylvania, having lost but one game of the series. The superiority of the team is beyond question, and the result, although conclusive, is far from showing its real strength. Nevertheless it is a result that all Lehigh men can well be proud of, and marks an epoch in our foot-ball development.

It is to be regretted that the offer of a silver cup as a trophy of the State championship will not be accepted, the University of Pennsylvania having refused to enter any athletic contests in which Lafayette will take part. But as it is highly probable some new foot-ball league will be formed among the Eastern colleges, before another season comes round, and to which Lehigh is sure to be admitted, the games for the State championship will soon become of little importance. It is in the contests for the foot-ball supremacy of America, Lehigh should have a place, now ranking at least fourth among the American colleges.

IT has been customary for THE BURR to give each year a number of prizes to the undergraduates in the University for the best contributions to its columns, and we therefore make the following announcement, directing particular attention to the fact that these prizes have frequently been won by members of the Freshman class, and should be of especial interest to the lower classmen generally.

There will be given a prize of five dollars for the best verses; a prize of five dollars for the best distinctively Lehigh song; a prize of ten dollars for the best original story, not to exceed fifteen hundred words, and a prize of five dollars for the best original drawing for illustration. The drawing must be finished in india ink on white paper, and at least 1½ times as large as the illustration intended. Those who wish to compete must send in their work before January 10, 1890. All contributions should be accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the proper name and address of the contestant, which will be opened after the decisions are made and the prizes then awarded accordingly.

WE publish in this number the complete constitution of the Athletic Association as recently revised and adopted.

Several important changes have been made, tending to a more thorough and systematic management of our athletic affairs, and these will doubtless recommend themselves, particularly to those who have taken part in the work of the Association in the past. Hereafter the annual meeting will be held the first Friday in June, and the officers for the succeeding year will be elected before that date. This is probably the best change made. It will enable the officers to proceed promptly to work at the beginning of the new year, and ensure a continuous administration of affairs, most necessary. The provision for an Auditing Committee is a very important addition, which THE BURR has long advocated, and should prevent in a large measure, the careless mismanagement which has heretofore marked the financial affairs of the Association. Altogether it is a good practical set of rules, and the new officers deserve commendation for their prompt action in the matter.

While the provision for membership dues has been very properly abolished, nevertheless, we hope the members of the University will give the Association their hearty financial support, remembering that track and indoor athletics of which the Association has immediate control, are of as much importance and must be as thoroughly maintained as any of the teams, if we are to keep rank with other colleges.

THE remarkable coincidence of two indecisive foot-ball games this Fall, both of which were fairly won and then "tied" by a series of unforeseen accidents, has been on a par with the many unfortunate happenings which have characterized an altogether most successful season. Scarcely an important game has been played by the regular eleven, and the team that went to Springfield on the 23d was but a shadow of its former self. Dashiell, Blunt, Emery, Reese, Riddick, Coates, Detweiler, Dougherty and Rafferty—nine of the strongest men, have been unable to play in various important contests, and yet with the exception of two closely contested games with Princeton we have been defeated but once. Most justly can we claim place with the best foot-ball teams in the country—place second to none save Princeton, Yale and Harvard.

More than this, may we not derive no little satisfaction from the fact that Lehigh's eleven has been a team of college men? We have brought no graduates back to enable us to win dubious honor, but have played only men having a just right to play. Not a victory has been won by the questionable methods now so much in vogue, and we are yet to be tasked with unfairness of any sort. Our games at home and abroad have been characterized by the best spirit of college men, and those who have had the honor of playing on the team deserve no little credit for the exceptionable spirit of fair play they have undeviatingly maintained: in which neither the reputation of the college nor their own will suffer by comparison.

FLIRTATION.

FLITTING fancy, blithe and free,
Often have I thought of thee!

How we sat by babbling brook,
Sunny meadow, shaded nook.
Hazel eyes looked into mine,
Soulful, rapturous, divine.

Every glance and every sigh,

Actions thou might now deny,
Speechless speech, unspoken vow—

These were darts from Eros' bow!
Flitting fancy, blithe and free,

Dost thou love as I love thee?

* * * *

Gentle youth, so gay and free,
Seldom have I thought of thee;
How we sat by babbling brook,
Sunny field or shady nook.
Dark blue eyes looked into mine—
They were roguish, not divine!

Every glance and every sigh—

Actions you cannot deny—

Were only efforts made in vain!

Cupid's arts we cannot feign;

Both were guilty, don't you see?

Love you? no, nor dost thou me.

LEHIGH 6; LAFAYETTE 6.

THE return game with Lafayette, played at Easton, November 16, and resulting in a tie, although close and exciting, was not such as the score would seem to indicate. Only the remarkable incompetency of the umpire prevented Lehigh winning. Lafayette played desperately to win, resorting to all manner of questionable tactics, throttling and holding throughout. Their end rushers in particular held with impunity. Repeated complaint was made to the umpire without avail; not only would he refuse to even caution their men, but whenever a Lehigh player resisted such infringement of the rules, he would immediately give Lafayette a foul. With his repeated declaration that Lehigh did no more fouling than their opponents, incontrovertible proof of his partiality is seen in his decisions. Ten fouls were given against Lehigh and but two against Lafayette. Indeed no sooner would our men force the ball close to Lafayette's goal line than his inevitable whistle would sound, and but for the fact that the only touch-down was made from about the twenty yard line, it is doubtful if we would have scored at all. The effect of this soon become apparent, the men, in the latter half playing a noticeably loose and spiritless game, feeling, as they expressed it, there was no use to try to win.

The teams were as follows:

LEHIGH.				LAFAYETTE.
Emery,	.	.	left end	.	.	Dumont.
Coates,	.	.	left guard	.	.	Oliver.
Balliet,	.	.	centre	.	.	Williams.
Detweiler,	.	.	right guard	.	.	Ellis.

Blunt,	right tackle	Welles.
Riddick,	right end	Silver.
Walker,	quarter-back	Fox.
Warriner, (capt.)	half-back	Camp.
Dashiell	half-back	(capt.) Mackey.
Hutchinson,	full-back	March.

Referee, Mr. Spicer; Umpire, Mr. Sproul.

Play began at 3 o'clock; Captain Mackey winning the toss and taking the ball; Lehigh defending the east goal. March gains a dozen yards in the V, and with Camp a dozen more by short rushes. But soon he is compelled to kick. Lafayette gets the ball, immediately loosing it on four downs. Warriner gains fifteen yards in two rushes and then Dashiell twenty-five by a fine run around end. Rafferty quickly gains ten more and Hutchinson five. The ball is getting near to Lafayette's goal line and Lehigh is carrying everything before them. At the next line up Warriner goes through for ten yards, but the umpire's whistle sounds and Lafayette is given a foul. However, Mackey, March and Camp fail to gain a foot and the ball goes back to Lehigh. The ground just here was about the worst in the whole field. Walker and Rafferty manage to gain five yards, but Dashiell falls twice and then kicks. The ball goes over Lafayette's goal line, and play starts twenty-five yards out, with it in Lafayette's possession, but they can only gain a few yards, and it is returned to Lehigh. Blunt makes five, Rafferty five more, and then Warriner takes the ball. Twice he gains and the third time breaking through the line scores a touch-down, and Dashiell kicks goal.

Again play begins in the middle of the field. Mackey makes ten yards and Camp five, then March is forced to kick and Hutchinson is downed on Lehigh's fifteen yard line. Welles breaks through and Dashiell loses five yards. He then punts to Mackey who gains a few yards from centre field. Coates breaks through and forces March to loose five yards, and Rafferty at the next line up repeats the performance on Mackey. To keep the ball Lafayette looses ten yards more. Then March and Camp recover fifteen yards. But again Mackey is forced to loose five, and Lehigh gets the ball, only to loose it on a fumble. In vain Lafayette's backs try to gain ground and the ball is again returned. Warriner and Rafferty now rush it quickly fifty yards down the field, but near Lafayette's goal a foul is given just in time to prevent scoring, and a long punt by March sends it back to centre field. Again the ball is on the way to Lafayette's goal. Warriner gains five and Dashiell twenty yards. Then Warriner rushes through the line ten yards further but the umpire's whistle sounds and the ball is brought back and given to Lafayette. They can only gain a couple of yards and March has to kick. Warriner makes a gain, but Welles tackles Rafferty back of the rush line, and after loosing five yards, Dashiell punts, Lehigh securing the ball. Once more it is forced near to Lafayette's goal, but the umpire gives a foul because Riddick returns Dumont's slugging. Mackey now looses five yards just escaping a safety, and March kicks. Dashiell fumbles the ball and Wells secures it on their thirty yard line just as time is called.

After fifteen minutes rest play is resumed. The goals are now changed. Lafayette has the grade in their favor while the sun is just in their opponents eyes. But Lehigh starts off well, gaining ten yards by the V, and Warriner rushes through the line fifteen yards further; then Rafferty gains five. At the next line up Williams kicks the ball from Balliet before it is put in play and ten yards are lost. Warriner regains five, but the umpire gives another foul. The team is now thoroughly discouraged, they take their positions indifferently, and the Lafayette men hold all along the line, March and Camp gain ground rapidly and soon Camp makes a touchdown, from which goal is kicked, and the score is 6 to 6.

From centre Lehigh gains ten yards and then Warriner five. But Rafferty looses ground and Dashiell kicks on the fourth down. The ball now goes from side to side, Camp and March rushing strongly for Lafayette and Warriner doing splendid work for Lehigh, but neither side succeeds in scoring again and time is finally called with the ball in Lafayette's territory.

Coates played a remarkably fine game throughout, doing the best work on the line while Warriner always gained ground and made many beautiful runs. The unjust umpiring thoroughly demoralized our rush line and prevented Lehigh from winning a game which she justly deserved.

LEHIGH, 8; U. OF PA., 0.

Lehigh played her fourth and last game for the championship of Pennsylvania, Nov. 20th, and easily defeated her opponents by the above score. The grounds were wet and slippery, due to recent rains, and there was an almost continual down pour during the progress of the game, but notwithstanding there was little fumbling done by either team. Lehigh played a strong, steady team game with good interference, while Pennsylvania's play was characterized by continual looseness and failure to protect the runners. The score by no means indicates the relative playing of the two teams, as the ball was kept most of the time in U. P.'s territory, and it was only due to a succession of fouls called upon the home team at inopportune times, that prevented the result from being materially larger.

U. P. won the toss and took the ball, and Lehigh faced the west goal. The teams lined up at 2:50, and U. P. made 5 yards on the customary V. Valentine and Windsor were given the ball in succession, and each failed to gain. Thayer then punted to Dashiell. Lehigh failed to gain materially on the next downs, and Dashiell was forced to kick. His kick was blocked, and Windsor secured the ball and was tackled on the 15-yard line. U. P. failed to gain and Thayer punted on the third down to Warriner, who made a good run. The ball was now advanced rapidly due to Rafferty and Dashiell, and Warriner's fine run of 15 yards. Further substantial gains were made by the backs, which carried the leather into U. P.'s territory. Lehigh soon lost the ball on 4 downs. The visitors failed to make the necessary 5 yards to keep the ball, and Thayer punted as usual on the third down. Dashiell secured the ball and returned the kick, and Riddick got it out of bounds.

Play was again begun, and Warriner made 25 yards around the right end, and was downed in about the centre of the field. U. P. steadily lost ground, and a touchdown seemed imminent, but the umpire allowed a foul, and the ball was lost. The home team regained it again a few minutes later on a similar decision. The visiting team braced up at this period, and again gained possession of the ball on the fourth down. Failing to gain, Thayer kicked to Hutchinson who fumbled, and Dewey securing it ran more than half the length of the field and touched it down behind the Lehigh goal. The umpire, however, decided that Hulme fouled Dashiell by holding, and refused to allow it. The teams lined up on Lehigh's 25-yard line. The ball was now carried down into U. P.'s territory, where it remained the greater period of the rest of the half. Once again Lehigh lost the ball on U. P.'s 15-yard line on a foul claimed by the umpire, and when time for the half was called, the leather was but a few yards from the visitor's goal.

The teams lined up for the second half at 4 o'clock, with the ball in Lehigh's possession. 15 yards was made on the V, and Warriner made 10 more on a strong run. Failing to gain on the next downs, Dashiell punted, and U. P. secured the ball on their 10-yard line. Thayer kicked as usual on the third down. Neither side gained materially for the next few downs, although the leather still remained in U. P.'s portion of the field. Finally Thayer punted to Dashiell who was tackled on the 25-yard line. Warriner now made a splendid run of 13 yards through centre, and the ball being again put in play, Rafferty carried it across the line, 30 minutes after time for the half had been called. Warriner fumbled the ball on the punt-out, and Audenried fell on it. As before, Thayer punted on the third down, and the leather fell into Hutchinson's arms. Hutchinson, being about to be tackled made a long pass to Dashiell, who by a magnificent run of 45 yards through the opposing team touched the ball down squarely between the two goal posts. The umpire, however, claimed that offside playing had been done, and refused to allow the touchdown. The teams again lined up, and U. P. failing to make the 5 yards necessary to keep the ball, as usual, Thayer punted, and Detweiler secured it. Rafferty now made the longest run of the game. Starting 70 yards from U. P.'s goal he was only downed on the third line distant from it. The visitors braced up and the ball went to them on 4 downs. Dashiell caught Thayer's punt, and by a brilliant run was only tackled within 12 yards from goal. Lehigh steadily forced on to the 5 yard line, when Dashiell scored the second touchdown by a run through centre. Dashiell punted out and tried for goal, but failed, and time was called, score, 8 to 0.

For Lehigh, the whole team played a good interfering game, Warriner, Dashiell and Rafferty playing especially well. Dashiell's punting was perhaps the best and surest he has done in any game during the season, when the rain and consequent condition of the ball is considered. Hulme and Valentine rarely gained for Pennsylvania, and Thayer, who kicked with scarcely an exception, on the third down, only did fairly well. Dewey played the best game on the visiting team.

The following were the players:—

WESLEYAN, II; LEHIGH, II.

Lehigh played a tie game with Wesleyan at Hampden Park, Springfield, Mass., on Friday afternoon, Nov. 22. The score does not indicate the relative merits of the two teams, for if justice had been accorded our eleven they would have won. Lehigh made two touchdowns which were not allowed, although they were fairly earned. Wesleyan did not score until dark, and their points were made after two of our best rushers had been injured. The game was a rough one; Mr. Graham of State College, who umpired for the greater part of the time, was very incapable and seemingly blind to the slugging that was freely indulged in. The spectators gave the team no encouragement at all, and hooted them whenever they protested against any unjust decision.

Wesleyan won the toss and started play at 2:40 with a V, gaining 8 yards. On the third down Hall kicked, but the ball was blocked and Reese secured it. Dashiell's drop kick fell short, but Hall fumbled the ball and Emery picked it up and made a touchdown. It was not allowed by the umpire, who claimed offside play. For a while downs followed in rapid succession, neither side being able to gain much ground. Finally, Wesleyan by good playing, worked to Lehigh's 15-yard line only to have Rafferty break through and take the ball from Hall. At this point Walker was hurt in the eye, but in a few minutes he was able to resume play.

Owing to splendid interference, Warriner made 40 yards. After slight gains, Dashiell kicked and Lehigh secured the ball on Hall's fumble, Rafferty rushed 8 yards before being downed, but in falling wrenched his shoulder, and he was forced to leave the field, Coates being substituted for him. A double pass was worked for 15 yards and Warriner followed with 8. Crane of Wesleyan having received a bad cut over the eye was unable to continue, and Ralston went on in his place. The ball was passed back to Dashiell for a try at goal and standing on the 40-yard line he sent it whirling between the posts thus scoring five points for Lehigh. Wesleyan by good rushes took the ball far into their opponents' territory, where it was secured by Detweiler as a result of a fine tackle of Riddick's. Dashiell kicked to Hall, who fumbled but recovered the ball. By short gains Wesleyan advanced to Lehigh's 20-yard line. From this point Slayback made a touchdown, which was not allowed by the umpire on account of holding. Soon afterwards time was called and the first half ended.

Lehigh opened the second half with a V, and gained 15 yards. Successive runs by Emery, Dashiell and Warriner carried the ball to Wesleyan's 5-yard line. Dashiell dashed through and made a touchdown, from which he kicked a goal. Score, 11-0 in favor of Lehigh. Soon after Warriner made another touchdown, which was not allowed, as the referee declared that he had run out of bounds. Riddick was obliged to retire, suffering from a broken nose, and Dashiell replaced him on the line, Cope going in as half-back. The weakened condition of Lehigh's rush line enabled Wesleyan to keep the ball generally well into their territory. At one time Dashiell was given an opportunity to kick another goal from the 40-yard line, but he was not successful. There was a wrangle over the decision of Mr. Graham's giving Lehigh 25 yards for fouling on the part of Wesleyan, and Paul Hawkins, of Springfield, became umpire. At 4:54, Hall kicked a goal from the 25-yard line, and Wesleyan was credited with five points. It was now getting too dark to play anything but a chance game, and Wesleyan's luck was good. A long low punt by Hall carried the ball to Lehigh's 10-yard line. Dashiell missed Walker's bad pass, Parshley broke through, secured the ball and made a touchdown, Hall kicked the goal and the score stood tie. There was still seventeen minutes of time, but the captains agreed to call the game on account of darkness.

Slayback played well for Wesleyan, while for Lehigh, Dashiell, Hutchinson and Warriner put up their usual good game, and Rafferty sustained his reputation as a rusher.

The teams were:—

WESLEYAN.		LEHIGH.
Crane,	left end.	Emery.
Brainerd,	left tackle.	Rafferty.
Bickford,	left guard.	Detweiler.
Fogg,	centre.	Balliet.

NAY?

HER eyes, they were simply perfection;
 Her lips, saucy, red as could be,
 A rose just in bloom her complexion
 And her whole an anomaly.

No wonder I asked quite insanely
 To kiss those rich lips her consent.
 She said "nay" but added humanely,
 "Prohibition does not prevent."

COMMUNICATIONS.

[The editors are not responsible for any opinions expressed in this column. No anonymous communications published.]

EDITORS LEHIGH BURR:—There appears to be an impression among the technicals that the Engineering Society is only for the Senior Class, the sooner this idea is abandoned the better.

The clauses in the constitution relating to membership are as follows:

1. There shall be two classes of members; viz., Members and Associate Members.
2. Members shall be students in the Engineering Departments of the Lehigh University after attaining their Junior year; also Professors, Instructors and Alumni in Engineering Courses.
3. Associate Members shall be students of the Lehigh University after attaining their Sophomore year. They shall be entitled to all the privileges of members, excepting those of voting and holding office.

Of the large number of Juniors to whom the membership blanks have been sent, but five have joined, a very unsatisfactory state of affairs when one considers that upon this class will devolve the administration of the society next year. We would also advise the Sophomores to become associate members as soon as possible, for this society offers many excellent advantages, its Journal being recognized as one of the leading college technical publications. Its meetings are most instructive, and altogether the organization is one which every engineering student in the University should support.

KERNELS.

—"Gee hee, gee hah, gee hah hah hah," has evidently come to stay.

—Coates, '90, has been elected manager of the base-ball team for the ensuing year.

—The University of Pennsylvania has decided to hold no further athletic contests with Lafayette.

—Through the courtesy of President Wilbur, the foot-ball team made their Southern trip in the new directors' car.

—Through the kindness of Mr. Flickinger there now hang upon the walls of the Gymnasium, views of the University buildings.

—The best goal from the field in any college game this season, was made by Dashiell in the Wesleyan game, from the forty yard line.

—About fifty Lehigh men witnessed the Yale-Princeton game. Their sympathies were divided, some cheering for the blue and others for the orange and black.

—The gate receipts at the second Lehigh-Lafayette game were the largest in the history of the latter college and were sufficient to liquidate all the outstanding debts of the foot-ball team and to leave a nice surplus.

—The Philadelphia Press to the contrary notwithstanding, Bethlehem was not ablaze with bonfires and fire-works the night after the Pennsylvania game. The victory was not unexpected and the excellence of the defeated team would not have warranted any such demonstration.

—The subjects for the Junior Oratorical Contest have been posted. They afford a wide range of choice, and among them each aspirant for rhetorical honors should experience little difficulty in finding one especially suited to himself. Here they are: Utilitarianism; The Modern Stoic; The Modern Epicurean; Divers Codes of Morality; William Tecumseh Sherman; The Next Centennial, 1989; Nature and Industry; The Four-Hundredth Anniversary of the Discovery of America; The Duties of Alumni; Robert Edward Lee; The Idylls of the King; The Ladder of Politics from the Borough to the Nation, and Alexander Hamilton.

—The special train of ten cars that left Bethlehem for Easton at 1.30 P.M., November 16, carried between five and six hundred passengers—students reinforced by a town delegation. Brown and white ribbon was everywhere, fixed in the button hole or fluttering from the cane. The crowd was a good-natured one and did the usual amount of cheering while passing through the streets of Easton to the Lafayette Campus. During the progress of the game, several new yells made themselves heard, such as "You know, you know, Lehigh tackle low," and its variation where "ain't slow" was substituted for "tackle low." These originated with the Shanty Hill delegation, but they were instantly caught up and repeated by the crowd. Good order was maintained throughout the game and nothing occurred to mar the success of day, if we except the tied score.

ATHLETIC NOTES.

—A movement is on foot to abolish the "cane spree" at Princeton hereafter.

—The Harvard Bicycle Club has challenged the Yale Bicycle Club to a road race.

—Harvard has two eights in regular training as candidates for the University crew.

—After the close of the foot-ball season the Harvard crew will go into active training.

—The Sophomores at Princeton hold the college championship in base-ball, lacrosse and lawn tennis.

—The Manhattan Athletic Club Chronicle thinks that Al Copeland will defeat Dohm at middle distance running next season.

—A new boat house is being built for the Harvard crew. It is the gift of Mr. G. W. Weld of Boston, and will cost fully $20,000.

—The New York World expresses the opinion that Lehigh University stands next to Yale, Princeton, and Harvard in foot ball, and should be admitted to the League.—Yale News.

—The following Colleges compose the New England Intercollegiate Foot-Ball Association: Amherst, Dartmouth, Williams, Stevens Institute and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

—Edwin J. Hyneman has been elected captain of the University of Pennsylvania nine for next year. Hyneman has played on the nine for four years and was captain during the latter part of this year.

—The expenses of the boat club at Harvard last year were $10,076.17, of the base-ball association $7,208.02 and of the foot-ball association $7,214.38 making a total for the three organizations, $24,588.57.

—At the Warren Club (Wilmington, Del.) Fall sports, W. L. Condon, present holder of the world's record for throwing the sixteen-pound hammer with four-foot handle, beat his former record by a throw of one hundred and fifty feet, five and one-fourth inches.

EXCHANGES.

—According to The Virginia University Magazine, which makes the statement in the soberest earnest, Vassar has a new gymnasium costing $300,000. We would respectfully inquire of our contemporary of what material it may be constructed. On the outside is it a temple of art, containing niches filled with fairy nymphs bathing their silken tresses, or roving Dianas, or perhaps Cupids aiming well-directed arrows at invisible masculine hearts—and the inside, is it built of Parian marble, and foreign woods exhaling the choice perfumes of their native climes? We certainly congratulate our sister college upon its wonderful good fortune.

Several other statements in the same columns of the magazine evince careless and hasty reading of exchanges, otherwise, the first number for the collegiate year is a very good one. "An Argument against Governmental Control of the Great Railway Systems of this Country" is especially commendable.

—The following is taken from the Cornell Era, and more than one institution besides Lehigh will look forward with interest to its possible (?) fulfillment.

"It is reported that a law student, after our defeat by Yale, 70 to 0 indignantly declared his intention of going to Yale, an institution that could play foot-ball. If Princeton beats Yale, Thanksgiving he will probably desert to that college and next Fall when our crew has returned from New London he will again come back to our midst."

—The following little bit of verse is taken from the pages of the Yale Record.

A SIMILE.

"Accept my love!" the freshman cried,

"Accept and marry me!"

Like a fragile vine,

You need to twine

For support 'round a stalwart tree!"

"It cannot be," the maiden said,

"Though you are like a tree I've seen,

O, there's one! Look!"

The freshman shook,

It was an Evergreen!

COLLEGE NOTES.

—The Yale News has made arrangements to publish monthly letters from Oxford.

—The Hon. Seth Low will enter upon his duties as President of Columbia in February next.

—The new register at Cornell will show 1300 names. This year's cadet corps is composed of 521 students.

—The University of Michigan has done away with the marking system and has abolished all prize competition and class honors.

—President Adams of Cornell has resigned his professorship of history and will henceforth devote himself entirely to administrative work.

—In the University of Cambridge, England, there are twenty-one different colleges, each one of which has its individual boat crew and cricket team.

—It is stated that one man in 5000 takes a college course in England, one in 615 in Scotland, one in 213 in Germany, and one in 2000 in the United States.

—The Board of Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania have accepted the offer of Joseph M. Bennett to give property adjoining the University buildings for a college for women in connection with the University of Pennsylvania.

—Professor Johnston of Princeton, just before his death, left in the hands of his publishers, ready for the press, a second history of the United States, written on a similar plan as his already well known text book, but suited to less mature minds.

—There are 1191 students at the University of New York this year of whom 125 are undergraduates, 108 graduates, 133 law students, 650 medical students, and 175 students of pedagogy. Four women have been admitted to the graduate course.

CLIPPINGS.

LINES WRITTEN IN A DIARY.

"THE pages of life."—Leaves of the rose
And soothing nepenthe in dreamland that grows,
White of the lily, the golden-rod's gleam,
And lotus that lies on the dark moving stream
That through the fair kingdom of summer-time flows.
Free wind of the mountain, soft zephyr that blows
Sumptuous with spices, and breezes that doze
On the white breasts of maidens,—these rustle, supreme,

The pages of life.

The glimmer of smiles, the sweet laughter that goes
From light-laden hearts, the sorrows and woes
That embitter love's wine, the passions that seem
The blossoms of souls, that blight and that beam,—
These form, dark and light, for what purpose God knows,

The pages of life.
